THE
OF THE TIME

STYLING: JANE BROWN. HAIR: JANE BROWN. MAKEUP: JANE BROWN. DRESS: JANE BROWN.

My loyal sheriff
We have to be in the same English class next year. What would boring Brit. Lit. be like without our humorous anecdotes between us?
Well jeni, you've been a real faithful sheriff (I mean friend) and I hope we stay friends until we're at least 99 1/2 years old. Maybe we can be roommate mates at Harvard. You'll be there with a 4-year scholarship, and I'll be there to fulfill
my father's dreams
of big business.
Anyway, since you have been a trustworthy servant all year, I shall award you. You will be granted two weeks at my humble castle (my house) this summer for a brief
holiday. I shall warn you though, the meat is guarded by a fierce dragon (my dad) but we'll have an awesome (pardon this modern slang) summer.

Love you,
Queen Dig
(Jeni)
(I mean friend, honest!)

Jenny,
you are one of the nicest people I have ever met, but you could speak
a little more during class.
I hope that you'll consider me a friend because I would like to consider you one.
Have a Great Summer!

Sincerely,
Craig Hamilton

Jenny, a great
It's been a good year. You're a friend to have. Hope we can have some classes together. Well, at least 2 classes because I really don't think I'm going to be able to go in any honors classes. Oh well. Have a great summer. Call me.

GEN
Jemmy,
It was great sitting in front of you in our exciting Biology seminar - minutes class. Well, it was a great year. You're a real sweetie Have a great few summer! Love

THE PRIME AND PRIDE

The almighty Seniors have the experience of four years under their belts, and the ridged square edges are rounded off to become the circles. Holding their heads high, they parade around the school flaunting their status. All too often, though, they forget that it is their last game, last competition, last play, last concert, last walk down the halls of Hartland High as a united group.

SENIORS

OF HARTLAND HIGH

A Lot Of Hassle For A Little Tassle

JUNIORS 89

Not quite rounded out, the Juniors have the challenge of figuring out their many sided personalities. They must now make important decisions, that will last a lifetime. Having to realize the fact that they aren't to the top of the hill, they can only wait for their time, when their 8 sides round out to become a Senior.

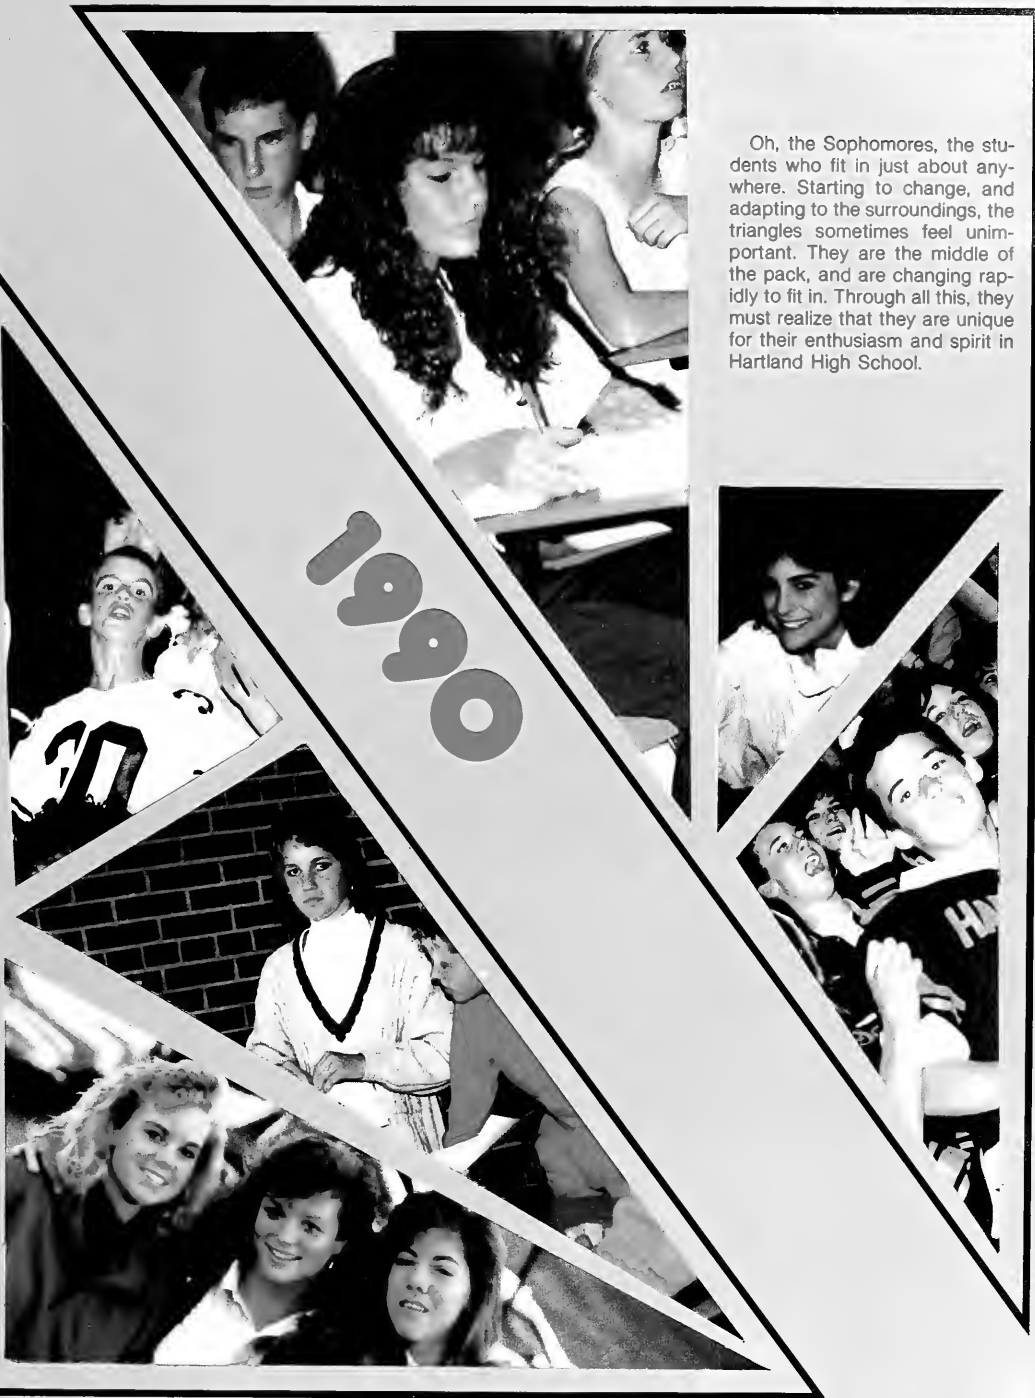

SOPHOMORES

Oh, the Sophomores, the students who fit in just about anywhere. Starting to change, and adapting to the surroundings, the triangles sometimes feel unimportant. They are the middle of the pack, and are changing rapidly to fit in. Through all this, they must realize that they are unique for their enthusiasm and spirit in Hartland High School.

FRESHMEN 1991

The squares, the Freshmen, the beginners. So young and so naive. They walk into the High School, nervous, straight, and square, not yet retaining their own individual shape. Often pretending to be much older, and more mature than they actually are, this four-sided group has new energy that adds something special to Hartland High.

Flight 255 22:27

Our Senior year has dawned upon us, the time went by so fast, we've made so many memories, the special times of the past.
Pictures stuck in our drawers, and in the scrapbooks that we've made, will one day make us laugh and smile, of our high school days.
The football games and Senior prom, the moments we've shared together, these are the times we'll never forget, they'll stay in our minds forever.
Now, we, the class of '88 sit together, in ivory and blue,
Ending, now, our high school years, wondering what we're going to do.
Will we ever see these people that we call our best friends again?
Or is this just the beginning of a life where happiness comes to an end?
It's time for us to spread our wings, and learn how to fly on our own, go discover the real world, for we've conquered this stepping stone.
Good-bye, and good-buck to you, my friends, I hope your life is great.
Live your life to the fullest, and remember our time, the year 1988.

MEET THE STAFF In and Out of School

The staff at Hartland High often go unnoticed and unappreciated. Many of them have talents in which you may be surprised to discover. Some members of our staff have participated in sports, received special honors, and have interesting hobbies. Did you know, for example that: Mr. Merrill is involved with his church choir, Mrs. Whittle was an exchange student, Mrs. Woodward is active in producing small musicals, Mr. Carr attended Michigan State University, Mr. Dankers coaches little league football, Mrs. Miller was in the National Honors Society, Mrs. Batten worked in a home for delinquent boys (social action group), Mr. Bessert likes cooking and owns his own restaurant, Mr. Biebuyck enjoys music, Mr. Eichler's hobby is training dogs.

Mrs. Richards vacationed in San Blas Islands with the Kumi Indians for three days, Mrs. Second is a church music director, Mrs. Vanspybrook was salutatorian of her class, Mr. Wilson is interested in bow and arrows, Miss Stackhouse enjoys sailing, Mr. Denzer was the treasurer of his senior class, Mr. Taylor participates in cross country skiing, Mrs. Flanagan received the John Philip Sousa award, Mrs. Faust was Future Teachers of America president in her senior year, Mrs. Skurka was a cheerleader, Mr. Ciarkowski refinishes furniture, Mrs. Cotton plays golf, and Mrs. Deese was valedictorian of her senior class.

As the year proceeds, our teachers become more familiar to us, and we begin to realize that they are people too. They have needs and desires just like the students they see everyday. When our teachers were in school, their activities were pretty similar to ours: Mrs. Kotz was the editor of her school newspaper, Mrs. Cooley was a valedictorian, Mr. Pfeifle was all-state in basketball and track, Mrs. Wilson attended Central Michigan University, Mr. Callaghan enjoys gardening, Mr. Pomeroy invests in real estate, Mr. Mishler fishes with flies for trout, Mrs. Eichler likes slam dancing on her free time, Mr. Leppke was the state F F A officers, Mr. Irvin plays ping-pong, Mrs. Jagfeld was Homecoming queen, and Miss Rowe often sings at weddings.

ADMINISTRATION

The principals of the school are the ones that determine our fate when it comes to disciplining us for our misdemeanors. Whether or not you visit the principal's office often, you know these officials as the leaders of the school. It is their job to maintain an atmosphere where we can learn and reach our goals. Although at times they appear firm and strict, on the inside they're just like you. For instance: Mr. Stevens was all-conference in track, football, baseball, and basketball; Mr. Barbieri was sportsman of the year at Servite High School, and Mrs. Clarke was in the Glee club.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Throughout the school year complications may occur. When they need attention it is usually the school board that handles these situations. Their job is to listen to the students, parents, and faculty and then determine what needs to be done. It is difficult at times for them to hear everyone, but they try, and that is what counts. In these photos you see: Jack Barrett - Vice President, Robert Clark - Secretary, Donna Butler and Paul Dobosz - Trustees, Gary Wright - Superintendent, and Scott Bacon - Business Manager, and not pictured are: Tom Green, President; Al Cummings, Treasury; and Nancy Laier, Trustee.

The Squares

The freshmen are the four-sided figures in the school, which have four points. Like a square wheel, the freshmen move slowly, and it's not always easy for these beginners. They find it hard to achieve at times, and are frustrated easily. New surroundings, responsibilities, pressures and challenges are the points that face the freshmen, and they must decide which path is the best for themselves. The squares must also realize that the time they share will not last as long as expected, so they must love every moment they live.

Frightened Freshmen

All of the new people, classes, and homework can be very mind boggling for a freshmen. They have even explained it as being foreign.

The Triangles

Growing into a sophomore, a square develops into a three-sided figure, who now is experiencing many new things. Beginning to achieve, experiment, and make new friends, a triangle must sometimes yield to the upperclassmen, even though their outgoing personalities surge forward. The sophomore is also starting to realize his/her priorities, and learn from mistakes made. The sophomores are the middle of the stack, but must know they are important, and also that they are one step closer to the top.

Who said life was fair?

Holding driver's license in hand, a sophomore stands in awe of the new driving rule, which states that only Juniors and Seniors can drive for the 1987-88 school year. Feeling cheated, the sixteen year old can be heard complaining and proclaiming this rule as unfair. "But if we can drive wherever we please, why can't we drive to school?" asked a sophomore who received his license earlier than most. Juniors and seniors are allowed to drive, and though the freshmen and sophomores are unable to drive, they too will one day be allowed to drive to school.

"I can understand how the school would not want sophomores driving to school, but if a tenth grader is sixteen and has a license, a special pass should be given to them if they're in a sport or after school activity." - Sandy O'Donnell

"I agree that sophomores should not drive to school because I wouldn't be able to anyways. I'm too young." - Craig Borkowski

"I think that sophomores should be able to drive as long as they have a logical excuse, like an after school sport or if they have a job where driving to school is the only way they can get there." - Beth Boloyan

The Memorable Beginning

The class of 1990 had a very memorable start to their sophomore year. The annual Homecoming assembly began, as usual, but ended on quite an unexpected note. Although it was presumed that the seniors would win the spirit jug, as years previous had proved, the sophomores captured the jug instead. With their energetic spirit they joyously accepted the title as the most spirited class of Hartland High.

After the winners were announced an extreme amount of tension could be felt in the air. Because there were so many conflicting opinions about the results of the contest, there were many hard feelings between all of the classes. Many sophomores felt resentful towards some of the senior class members for the way they reacted to the results. Here are some of their opinions:

"I think the seniors set a bad example of what maturity is. They were poor sports." - John Cipolla

"We deserved it, We won fair and square." - Scott Gilroy

However, some people formed a different opinion:

"It was great winning the jug, but the seniors really deserved it more than us." - Mike Bloomen

"It really doesn't matter that the jug got smashed, we are still the best." - Dan Lee

"It was the best brawl I've seen in a long time." - Steve Drumm

TOGETHER FOREVER

We've been through it all, the good times and the bad. We made it because we stuck together. No matter what, we were always there, to show each other how much we cared.

Today we may be sophomores, but tomorrow we'll be the best! We're gonna make it to the top. Together forever and never apart, maybe in distance but never in heart!

TOGETHER FOREVER!

The Octagons

The triangular figure then takes the form of an octagon. With 8 sides, a junior has many feelings and fears about life, and must stop to work out their problems. In every step they take throughout the year they encounter new obstacles. Every mountain they climb, the juniors attain a higher status which brings them closer to the ultimate goal of being a senior. They must love one another for themselves and hold on to every laugh and smile; for tomorrow comes sooner than anticipated.

The Junior team gathered outside on a cold rainy day to engage in the traditional powderpuff games. Before the main attraction was to begin the Seniors and the Juniors had to play the underclassmen. Both the Juniors and Seniors came out victorious.

Everyone awaited the championship game. At the head of Junior team was Kirk Evenson, who lead the Juniors to victory.

The game was filled with tension, it was felt by all who were present. The Juniors scored first with a long run by Laura Gardiner, but not long after the Seniors had met this challenge. The score stayed tied until the last second of the game; the Juniors had possession of the ball and in a last attempt to win the game, Amy Knapp threw a long pass to Stacy Knapp, who scored the winning touchdown. 14-7.

CLASS

88

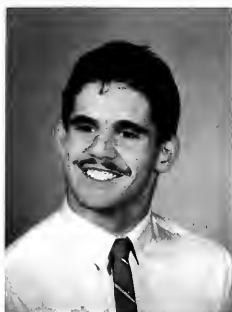

Thinking back upon our high school years brings back many memories; memories of Homecoming floats and football games, Geometry tests and Chemistry labs. Yet without our elementary years, high school would not be the renowned institution it now is.

Many students of the class of '88 attended the Hartland Round School. One of our greatest accomplishments there was the planting of many evergreen trees. After days of digging and planting the last words spoken were, "Come back in ten years and see how much they've grown."

It's been almost ten years and like the trees we planted so very long ago the class of '88 has also grown. We've grown bigger, bigger than any class that ever attended Hartland High; we've grown wiser, or at least we've tried; and at times we've even grown apart, sometimes leaving old friends for new.

It's events like these that cause diversity in a class and diversity is something that the Senior Class of 1988 truly epitomizes. For we have dancers, musicians, athletes and brains; class clowns, merit scholars and artists. We have what it takes to be the Prime and Pride of Hartland High!

Homecoming

Powderpuff - a lucky win for the Juniors

The 1987 powderpuff homecoming game could be closely compared to a mud wrestling competition. For those spectators soaked from the pouring rain it was quite entertaining to watch the powderpuff girls slipping and sliding in the mud. The events began with the juniors defeating the freshmen by a large margin and the seniors, after a rough game, defeating the sophomores. The teams were now revved up for the final game and the thick ambience in the air could have been sliced with a knife. The seniors and juniors glared at one another as though what was about to begin was World War III, not the final powderpuff game. The sophomores and freshmen also played a final game and the sophomores overbearing strength and quickness resulted in an easy victory for them. The most important game of the night, seniors versus juniors, turned out to be an unexpected victory for the juniors. The juniors scored a touchdown in the last second of the game with a great play by the Knapp sisters. The seniors' disappointment was evident, but they quickly regained their ground by showing that they had spirit and by knowing that the class of '88 is still great!

ASSEMBLY ENDS IN JUG BUST

October 2, 1987. The day of the Homecoming game and also the day of the pep assembly. Whether this day sticks out in your mind as good, or bad, it will be remembered by many. As the seniors strolled into the bleachers, they could feel the excitement in the air. All four classes were yelling, holding up signs, shaking noise makers, and getting hyped. The royal homecoming court paraded around the gym in their finest apparel. Pat Nieswonger, the senior class president, then announced the powder puff teams. The cheerleaders followed with a rap to the football players. The atmosphere was set and with the first spirit competition being won by the class of '89 the seniors were more hyped than ever. As the spirit jug competition began, some overcaustudents began aggressively ripping posters and their attitudes definitely shown through. This year's spirit jug competition was won by the sophomore class, the class of '90. This day will always be remembered as a joy for some and a day of disappointment for others.

THE GENERATION GAP

The 1987 Homecoming theme was the Generation Gap. The floats were paraded around the track during halftime of the Hartland vs. Portland game. The choir, the band, the floats, the cheerleaders, the team, the homecoming court, and the fans made this a very memorable night.

TIMES

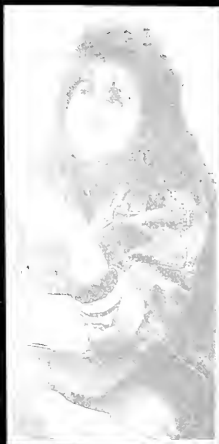

Students often wonder about school. Many of us have asked ourselves at one point or another, "Why are we here?" We're here to learn. Sometimes we use school as a place to gather and socialize rather than a learning center. Though studying isn't the most exciting thing to do in the world, you'll agree it is extremely important. The classes that we take in high school add to the growth of us, and is a starting point in our lives, our lives.

SPORTS OF THE TIME

FALL AND WINTER

This years' varsity fall and winter teams were lead by some talented individuals. They were the top performers inspiring their fellow teammates, they acted as mediators between their coach and team, and they worked hard demanding excellence from themselves and their teammates.

Off the field they also performed well. The majority of these athletes maintain a three point on a four point scale. In fact, some captains are in the top ten. Other captains are actively involved in student government, choir, or a club.

SPORTS CAPTAINS

Front Row: Susie Gregory, Ann Osiewalski, Jennifer DeVergilio, Paula Duncan, Laura Gordineer. 2nd Row: Tom Neu, Christie Aown, Laura Cheney, Craig Champavier. 3rd Row: Kellie Masuch, Pat Neiswender, Todd Krause, Tim Carr, Mike Hanna, Mike Batten, Brian O'Donnell.

The leaders of 1988 do more than flip a coin and shake hands with their opponent. They are top performers on and off the track, mat, fare way, slopes, court, bars, or field. These athletes are intelligent, charismatic, and competitive. They are actively involved in the community, sports, and school. They represent Hartland High with pride and dignity. The athletes above were your 1988 fall and winter captains!

Country runs to the top

The boys' cross country team, coached by Mr. Eichler, did considerably well this year as they strove to be number one in the state. Their record was 8-0 in the dual meets and they won all six invitationals in which they competed. They tied with Lakeland for first in the league and went on to win regionals; attempting to capture a deserving state title. The Hartland Harriers came in 5th place at the state competition. Carl Wades, who was first in the league and in the region, took 4th place in the State and helped the team tremendously. The Harrier's team captains were Brent Dix, Jeff Lander and Carl Wades. All of the runners were very important, and all should be proud of the achievements they have made.

The girls' cross country team, also coached by Mr. Eichler did fairly well this season. They were 4-4 in the dual meets and tied for 5th in league and regional competition. The most valuable runner award was given to Tracy Buehler, a junior. Sandy Potter was also an important part of the team. She received all-region and all-league honors. Team captains were Buehler and Potter, and the head manager, Suzanne Adams, also dedicated much time to the team.

Tee Men Take KVC Title

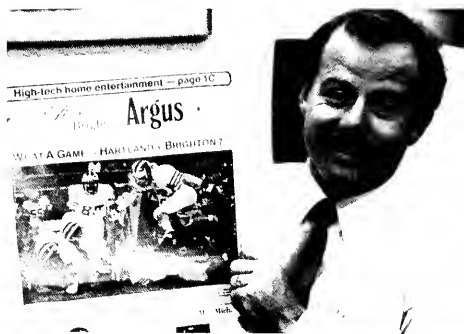

This year, the golf team was able to achieve the goal of winning the KVC title. When they first teed-off at the Pre-KVC meet, the season looked as if they were doomed to come in last place. They started off 1-4, but kept a positive attitude. The Hartland Golfers put together a most impressive ending to a rollercoaster season by stealing a first in the post-KVC tournament, and winning the KVC title after all.

Hartland Wins First Homecoming In 4 Years

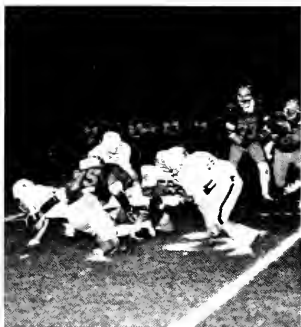

This year's varsity football team triumphed over the Portland Raiders to win our first Homecoming game in four years. The Raiders were no contest against the mighty eagles as we won 29-6.

The team consisted of thirty-two members: sixteen seniors and sixteen juniors. They were lead by captains Patrick Neiswiter, Todd Krause, and Glen Borkowski. Head coach, Thomas Barbeiri was assisted by Mr. Scherler, Mr. Shearer, and Mr. Capra.

When the final whistle of the season blew, the Eagles found themselves with a fairly successful season. Despite their 4-5 record, they were champions. The team was second in the Kensington Valley Conference and had shut-out an undefeated South Lyon team 21-0. The teams' greatest moment, however, was an 8-7 victory over their archrivals, the Brighton Bulldogs. The Brighton Argus called it: "One of the classic games in the K.V.C." It was a game full of intensity, suspense, and anticipation; a match decided by two super plays in the last twenty-six seconds of the game. First, Mike Batten threw a touchdown pass on a fourth down and eight. Then Kirk Evenson dove into the corner of the end-zone barely giving the Eagles their two point conversion. Accomplishments, such as these exemplified the closeness, dedication, discipline, and desire these young men possessed. More so, these great tasks illustrated the fact that these young football players were true champions.

CHAMPION Cheerleaders

The 1987-88 cheerleading squads have overpowered the school with their unbelievable ability to promote school spirit. What they have lacked in age they have made up for in spirit, strength, and pride. They have earned a great deal of respect from the students and faculty for their capability to always push forward and achieve their goals.

Swooshing down the slopes

Do you remember those days when we got blankets of snow, when school was canceled and almost all after-school activities were called off? You were probably snug as a bug in a rug at home while members of Hartland's ski team were out in the frigid weather, attempting to beat the odds that were against them. As a first year team, coached by Rich Kujala, Hartland did exceptionally well compared to the more experienced teams in their league. The boys placed 6th out of eight teams, while the girls placed 7th out of eight teams at the League competition. Their team will become stronger in years to come, because of the great talent of the underclassmen on the team. Some things our first year racers will never forget are: Fancy pants, flannels, June 9th, get loose, Rich, straddling gates, sing skis, deeking (DQ), Kirby piles, awesome muchachos and rockdogs.

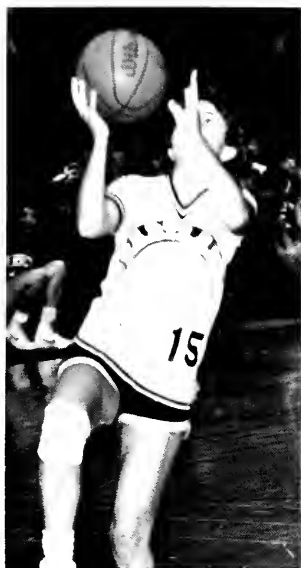

Bouncing to Success

Led by captains Sandy Smith and Bonnie Kittle (The Twin Towers), the 1987 girls basketball team had a fairly successful season. Coached by Don Benham, the girls placed 4th in the KVC with a 5-5 record, and a 12-11 record over all. Beating Pinckney 54-43, and taking first place in districts were not the only highlights of the season. The girls season was at a peak when Hartland's hungry archrivals, the Brighton Bulldogs, came to contend with the mighty Eagles. Prior to the game, the Dogs chanted "KVC" in the locker-room, and pounded on the lockers. But as the game came to a close the Dogs became silent, as Hartland trounced upon them 55-46.

BASKETBALL

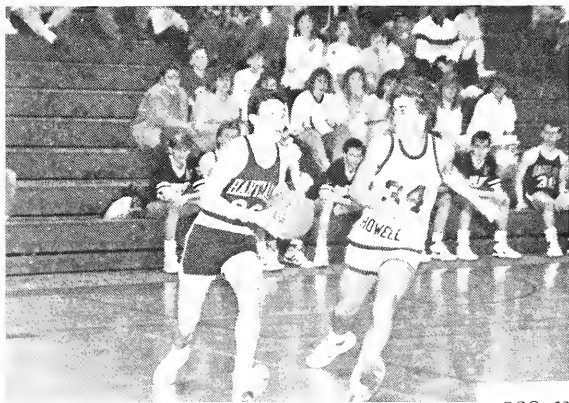

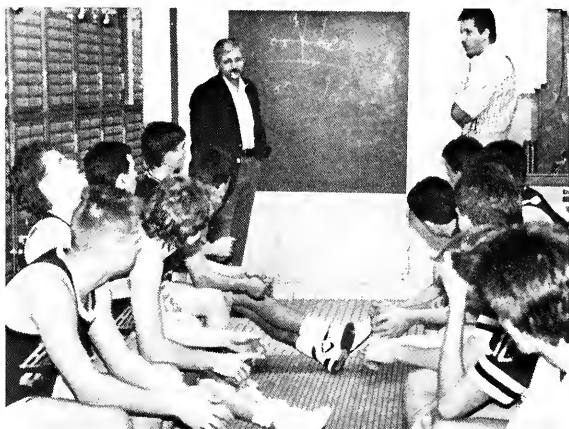

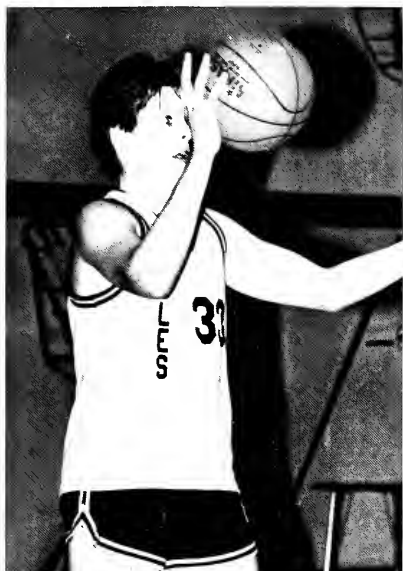

The Hartland hoopsters displayed a lot of talent this season, however, the odds just were not in their court.

The Varsity's effort and dedication was often present during the first half, however, the situation changed as they approached the fourth quarter and their strategy fell apart. This hard working team should have won more games, several of them were close. Williamston was a prime example, as they lost by only one point. However, despite their record, we can give them credit for their two victories against Lake Fenton.

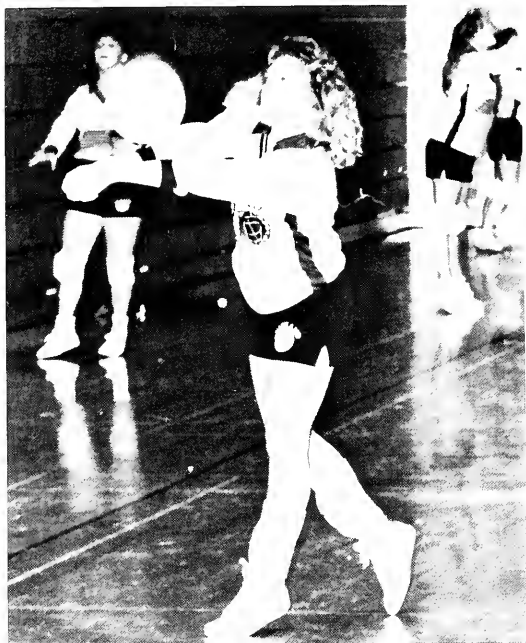

The junior Varsity's record was similar to the varsity's but they won a few more games. "The talent was there, but we just couldn't put it together," commented, captain, Phil Sandula. He further added, "The cheering from the fans really helped and boosted our efforts." The Freshmen team, came out with the most victorious season.

Shooting for the Hoop

Volleyball

The "bumpers" and "spikers" of the 87-88 season gave a valiant effort. Even though their season didn't appear to be very optimistic. The teams morale sustained and the guidance from their fearless leaders gave them energy and spirit to return and play another day.

Team members had to adjust to coaching changes as the season began. Former J.V. coach Estelle Sweeten was elevated to the Varsity position and was replaced by Pam Sample as J.V. coach.

Despite the seasons results and adjustments, the season brought new and exciting experience and friendships for team members while enjoying the sport they love.

Todd violates a former State Champ

Led by team captains Craig Chanavie, Pat Neiswinder, and Tom Neu, the Hartland High School Wrestling team had a fine season. Motivated by the new coaching techniques of Bill Cain and assistant coach Todd Darling, the team has shown outstanding improvement. Being a young team, the season got off to a slow start but finished strong with a 3rd place trophy at the Dexter Invitational, nine wrestlers qualified for the District Tournament, and four competed in the Regional Tournament at Clio. Craig C., Tom N., and Dave P. qualified for the Class A State Tournament at the Kellogg Arena in Battle Creek.

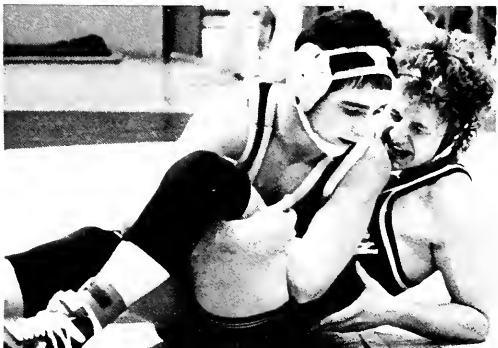

This years team standouts included: Senior captain Craig Chanavie, undefeated at 105 lbs. at the present time, boasting a 31-0 record and becoming the first Hartland wrestler to hold the title of KVC Champion 3 consecutive years. Junior Captain Tom Neu capturing his 1st KVC Championship at 138 lbs. with a 42-7 record. Senior captain Pat Neiswinder demonstrating his exceptional all-around athletic ability by becoming a Regional qualifier sprouting a 25-12 record at 198 lbs. and Junior Dave Prain muscling his way to become runner-up in the conference at 145 lbs. with a 25-17 record.

Craig C., Tom N., and coach Bill Cain are the only three Hartland Wrestlers ever to be selected for the Flint Area All-Stars Wrestling Team.

Underclass Hopefuls for next year include: Tom Neu, Dave Prain, Maurice Connelly, Steve Robinson, Todd Cheney, Marty Gross, Chad Frazier, and Chad Brennan.

Tom's quest for Conference Champ

Icers Slip

The hockey team had a bad start this season due to several players being injured. After all were healed, the team came back to win six out of their last eight games. Even with the bad start the team displayed much enthusiasm and team spirit, and had an excellent following by a group of loyal fans.

Softball

Eagles Take Shelander

The Varsity softball team didn't do as well as expected last year. They had high hopes of winning both the KVC Championship, and the Shelander tournament. The South Lyon Lions ruined the Eagles hopes of capturing the KVC title, however they did take first place at the Shelander tournament.

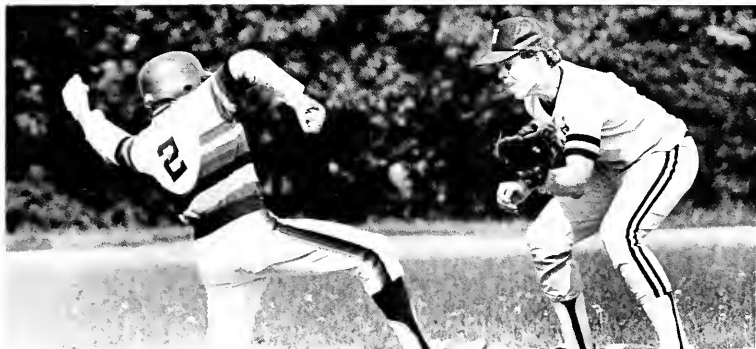

Eagles Go up In Smoke

The Hartland Varsity Baseball team, coached by Dan Mishler and Greg Cooley didn't have as good a season as expected last year. Despite the mistakes, they did beat a team ranked 6th in the state, which was "Our Lady of Waterford." The J.V. had a very fine year by finishing 17-8 overall and 6-6 in league play. The Freshman finished with a 9-13-1 record.

"The team didn't play too bad, but the mistakes they made were big and cost a lot."

— Coach
Mishler

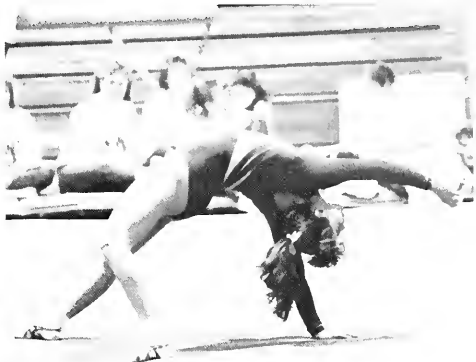

"Gymnasts' Fly High"

The Boys' Gymnastics team did not fare too well during the regular season, but went out on a high note, placing 5th at the state meet. The team was led by the three all-around performers: Paul Murray, Ken Schillinger and team captain Mark Yount. Paul Murray placed 4th at the state meet in all-around, and was in the finals on high-bar and floor. Ken Schillinger placed 6th all-around at the state meet.

Girls Gymnastics

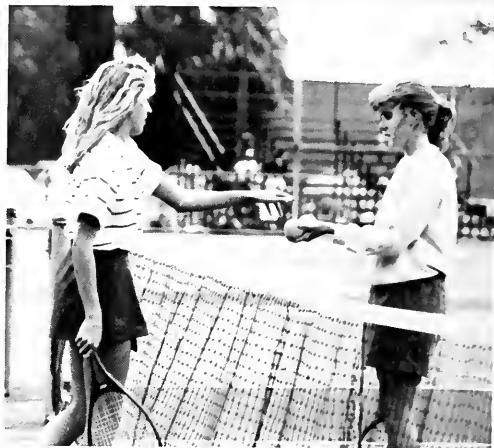

Young But Mighty

Even though the team was mostly freshmen this season, the girls gymnastics team did quite well. Three quarters of the way through the season, with six meets left to go, their record was 8 wins and 3 losses. The team was lead by new coaches this year, Nancy Hanes, and Charlie Deer. The captains were Susie Gregory and Laura Gordinear.

Team wins Hartland Tournament

The 1987 varsity girls tennis team had a mediocre season, as their final record was 6-8. Twenty-five girls went out for the team in August, and only eleven made it. Of those eleven, the most valuable player award went to Michelle Gilga, who won the K.V.C. third singles position. Heidi Helquist and Wendi Gallagher also took first place at the third doubles flight.

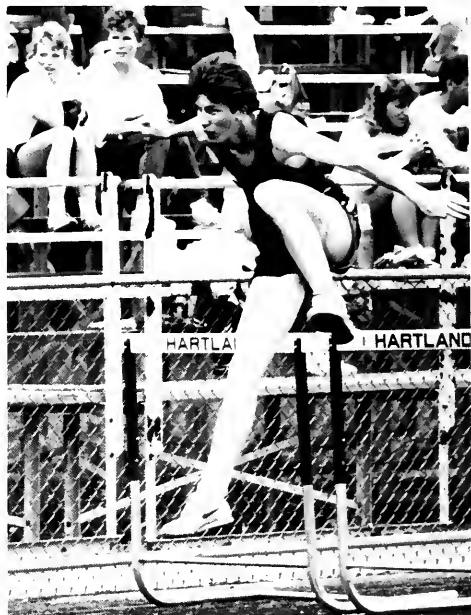

Netters' Serve-up 8 victories

The 1987 Boys' tennis team had high hopes for the season with 7 returning lettermen and 8 Seniors. They started out strong, winning 5 out of their first 6 matches. By the end of the season they ended up 4-6 in the league and 8-7 overall. One of the big highlights of the season, was when they placed 3rd at regionals out of 10 teams.

Flying Eagles Rising High

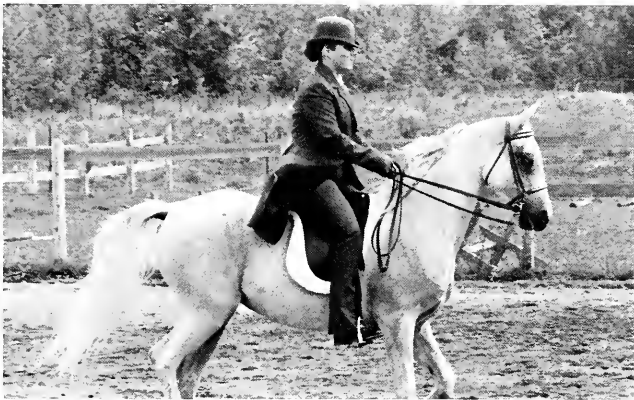

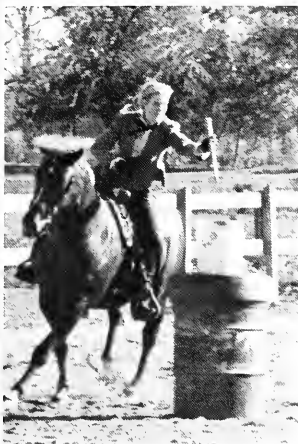

Hartland Tracksters had a fine season, for the boys set many new records and the girls continued their strong performance from previous years. We had many state qualifiers and performed well at conference and regionals.

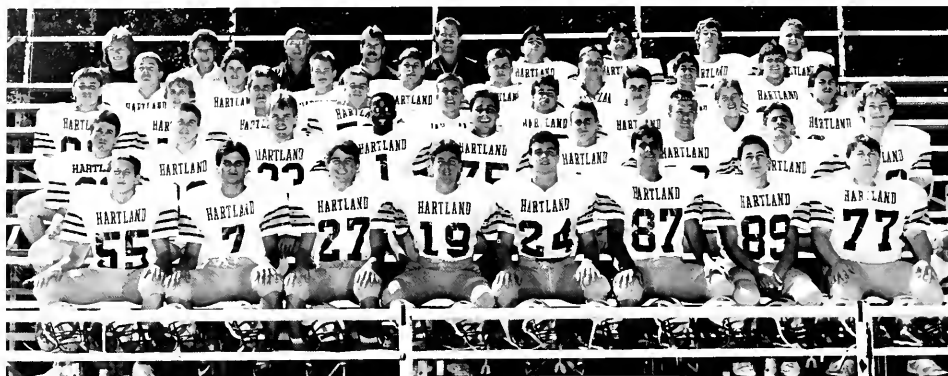

Equestrian Trots On

Hartland was represented by an outstanding Equestrian team this year. They worked very hard and did very well. The team was able to finish 4th overall in Livingston County at the end of the season. The team wishes to thank Mr. Goniea who took pictures at all the meets and say goodbye to their coach, Mrs. Irland, who is retiring this year.

1988 Olympic Games

The Olympic dream. Many amateur athletes will attempt to reach the ultimate goal of being a competitor in the 1980 Olympic Games, but only a chosen few earn the eminent status. If they succeed, in achieving their goals they will receive the gold. This year, the Winter Olympics were held in Calgary, Canada, and the Summer Olympics will be held in Seoul, South Korea.

OFFICERS

LEADERSHIP

While flipping through a standard college dictionary, I found the definition of leadership. It read, "Ability to lead, exert authority, etc.," but this word has many more aspects to it. I've also found that numerous clubs in our school have demonstrated qualities of a leader.

Along with a leader comes many responsibilities, including making changes, taking chances, and feeling confident with the decisions they have made. A leader does what he aspires without fear of rejection or being ridiculed.

Many clubs in Hartland High have fulfilled roles as leaders. They have participated in helping with the Special Olympics, feeding hungry families during Christmastime, and donating blood for those in need. Though these are just a few of the many activities, there are many other exciting and necessary events students can take part in.

Even if your best friend may not want to join the chess or stamp collectors club, as do you, be a leader and join the club that interests you. You might even look back and find a few friends following you!

Congratulations Wade!

We are so proud! You have done it! We wish you all the best. Good luck in whatever you decide to do.

Love,
Dad, Mary, Dave, Erin

Congratulations

Jennifer Tenaglia,

Thank you for bringing more love and kindness into our home — We have been blessed by having you with us. Your thoughtfulness, compassion and intelligence, are wonderful characteristics that we should all have. You will always be a success!

Love you
Tom and Rose Taylor

Congratulations

Jennifer DeVergilio,

May you experience throughout your lifetime the love, joy, and happiness that you have given everyone you touch.

Our love forever
Mom, Dad, and Sandy

STUDENT TIME

Lunch, Hallways and Lockers

Almost everyone will agree that the five minute interim between classes and lunch is the part of the day, next to 2:15, that everyone waits for. A break from studies and a chance to spend time with your friends.

In-School

Next to getting into trouble, going to class is the least favorite part of the school day. For some students, going to school is no big deal, but for others the hassels can be endless.

Dances

Dances are becoming increasingly popular. They are an excellent way to meet people, be with your friends and have a good time.

Times

We had some very interesting students attending H.H.S. this year. On this page a bit of each person's individual character stands out.

Times to Remember

On the morning of Nov. 3, 1987 an oil tanker travelling north and exiting off U.S. 25, failed to stop at M-59 crushing a passing car causing an explosion and killing a mother and her small child.

A routine training fire in Milford turned into a tragedy when things got out of hand and as a result 3 firefighters were killed.

Exclusively relating to students in our school we had a few run-ins with the administration. Jason McCoy and company rushed the winning Sophomore class that had just won the spirit jug. Jason and friends did not agree with the decision to make "Sophomores" the winners, so he captured the jug and broke it in two. This resulted in a halt on assemblies which lasted a few weeks.

Winterfest

Laff Olympics

Mr. and Ms. Olympia — Todd Krause and Cheryl Anderson

Due to deadlines and bad luck, this year's Winterfest activities were unable to be covered by the yearbook. Please accept the staff's apologies.

Winterfest

Winterfest is one of the busiest weeks in the school year which allows clubs the opportunity to compete against one another. The theme of this year's Winterfest was the Laff Olympics, which took place the week of February 8-12th. However, due to two unexpected snow days, the assembly was canceled.

Despite the weather conditions, the Winterfest dance, Roman Nights, still took place on Saturday night. The King and Queen Mr. and Ms. Olympia, was granted to Cheryl Anderson and Todd Krause from the Varsity Club.

Hallway Athletes

Throughout our many years of school, the time has come to recognize all the fine athletes who have set records unknown to the public eye. No scores or points are given, only the infamous hallway athletes know what true talent they are given.

Credit is due to the ever-so talented athletes who can make a damaging dive in order to complete a mission of nondisturbance. And, others choose to get toned by other means. Getting those lips in tone is important to a lot of students here at Hartland High.

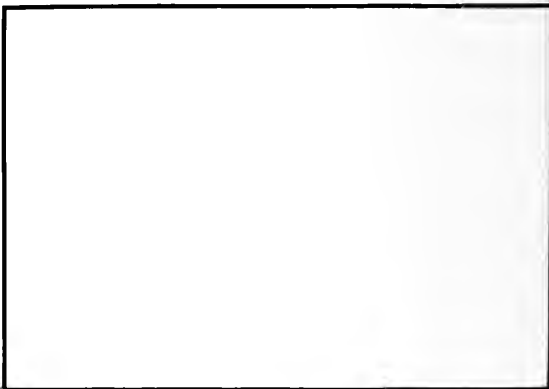

For all the classes this sign will eventually mean a sign of the past.

THE SUPER SENIOR SQUARE

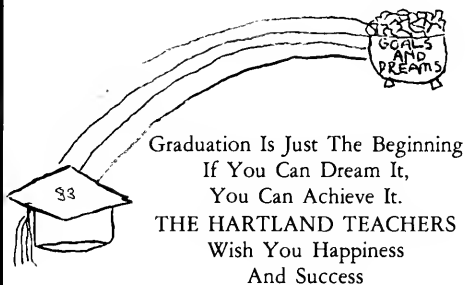

If you haven't had the pleasure of seeing the Super Senior Square in action, here it is! This is your chance to get that special guy or girl from the Class of 88 to sign your square. Be a Super Senior Square signer and signee!

I will just tell you Now you know I'll just
 Have to tell it all up Now just think! Next year we (Look at us!) Then ^{senior} Science we were Junior! Friends ^{Senior} 2nd grade
 (How old we!) Then we'd better How sad. I's a sniff while we Give it up! Happy! we
 And stay Lorel
 (As Always!) Chimela teach

90' forever!

The Monkees Rule! The Beatles Rock!

- Told ya
I'd take up the whole page!

He likes! It's he from this morning at II at morning of concert & I at concert &
And - the our young be + embelish with priestly -
We want
I hope we survive hand his over to hope we survive hand his I saved up for dear! And years in two days!
